WHO IS BOHMER?

- ✿ Bohmer means 'Man of the Trees', and was a title given to Founder and Director Clive Woodnutt whilst climbing and caring for trees for over 30 years across the globe
- ✿ Clive's technical knowledge and safe, efficient climbing and arborist skills plus his professionalism, indepth knowledge and eco-friendly approach to tree care is highly regarded amongst his industry peers, clients and the community
- ✿ Clive is the only registered, practicing Arborist in the Illawarra with industry association Arboriculture Australia

"We are a dedicated, family owned and operated local business and are proud to service our community and our spectacular natural surrounds."

– Clive Woodnutt (Bohmer)

ABOUT US

- ✿ We have gained a respected reputation in Australia due to Clive and his team's attention to quality, professional service and the skilful art of safe tree care
- ✿ We work with councils and organisations to stay abreast of regulations and training around tree care, preservation, safety and neighbour disputes
- ✿ We provide a 24/7 call out response to emergency services during storm bushfires and insurance works
- ✿ Tree removal is a last resort and we have respect for the environment and wildlife in all our operations
- ✿ We work on a range of education projects with local schools and community groups and donate mulch and timber for reuse
